DAY 1

Arrival at the Pôle Caraïbes airport, and technical assistance to collect the rental cars from our partner

Delivery of the road book for the stay

Installation at the Langley Resort Fort Royal.

DAY 2 : Vanilla atmosphere !

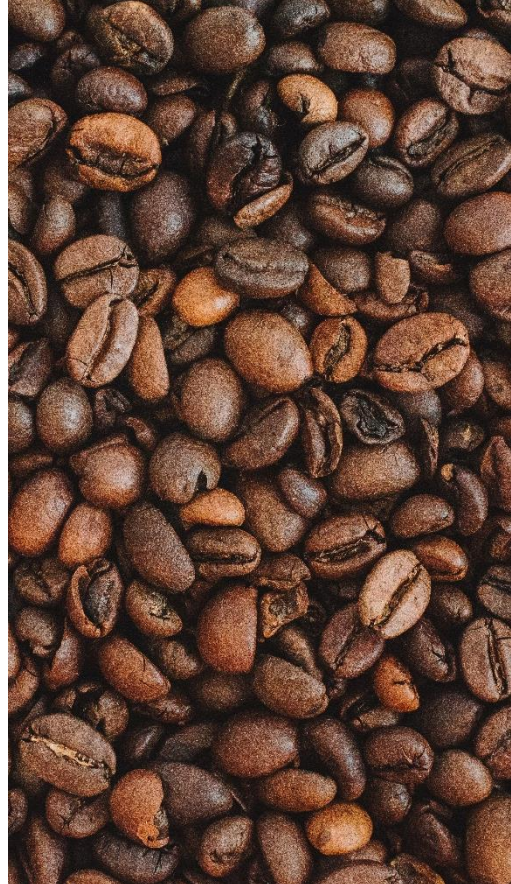

The Flavours Route starts at Domaine Vanigwa, specialized in vanilla production. Cédric Coutellier is a producer committed to developing a new sustainable and respectful agriculture to offer a 100% organic vanilla. Come to the direct meeting of the producer to taste and/or buy in exclusivity an exceptional vanilla, in extract or in pods.

Night at Langley Resort Fort Royal

DAY 3 : Become a chocolate maker!

If you are a cocoa lover, what could be better than creating your own chocolate bar? On the Gwakako estate, you will have the privilege of discovering all the stages of chocolate making: roasting, peeling, grinding... to finally obtain a real chocolate bar! A unique experience that will delight young and old alike!

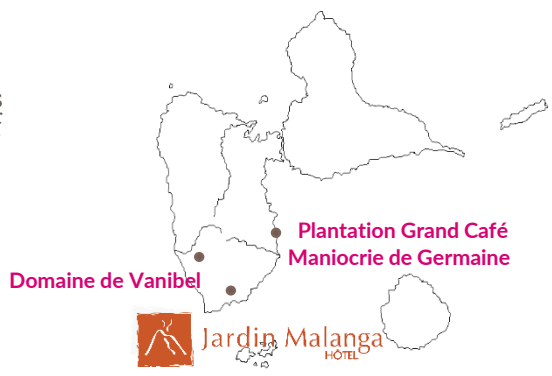

Night at Langley Resort Fort Royal

DAY 4 : Couleur Café !

The Domaine de Vanibel cultivates and promotes an exceptional terroir in the production of one of the best arabica coffees in the world thanks to its aroma. Come and discover the artisanal know-how of the coffee culture, as well as a mountain banana plantation. The visit will end with a tasting of the best "crus".

Night at Jardin Malanga

DAY 5 : Between banana and cassava plantations !

Direction Capesterre-Belle-Eau for a morning in the heart of the Grand Café Plantation, where you will find a banana culture and not coffee! Climb aboard a cart to visit the banana plantations that stretch over dozens of hectares. A change of scenery guaranteed! A few kilometers away is the Maniocrie de Germaine or the "Kassaverie". Unusual evenings are offered to taste products made from manioc and discover the history of this famous tuber. Don't forget to bring your drinks and your aperitif, and the magic will happen... !

Night at Jardin Malanga

DAY 6 : Marché aux épices

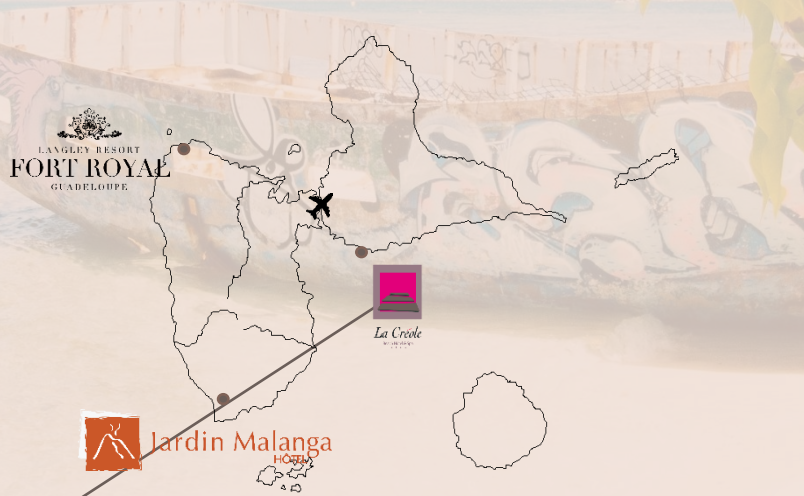

Your Flavors Route will inevitably pass by the market of Saint-Antoine or by the "spice market" of Pointe-à-Pitre. You will stroll in the middle of stalls all more colorful than the others. It will be a real explosion of scents: ginger, coriander, pepper, cinnamon, vanilla, colombo powder... spices are omnipresent and you will have the choice to bring back a souvenir full of flavors from your stay!
